

STS 20+20

Science and Technology Studies: The Next Twenty

April 7-9, 2011
Harvard University

Thursday, April 7: STS and the Disciplines

Malkin Penthouse, 4th Floor, Littauer Building, Kennedy School

- 2:00pm Does STS Matter, and to Whom?
- 3:00pm STS and the Law: Reframing Rights
- 4:00pm STS, Economics, and Sociology: Do Economists Make Markets?
- 5:00pm STS, Politics, and Public Management: Disaster and the Politics of Intervention
- 6:30pm Reception

Friday, April 8: STS and its Theories

Maxwell Dworkin 119, Harvard University

- 9:00am Defining the Boundaries
- 11:00am STS on Difference
- 2:00pm STS and the Public Sphere
- 4:00pm Opening the Black Box
- 6:00pm Poster Session

Saturday, April 9: STS Core, Careers, Futures

Maxwell Dworkin G115, Harvard University

- 9:00am The Core of STS: Where Are We? Where Are We Headed?
- 10:30am STS and Careers: Have We Come Home?
- 2:00pm New Horizons for STS
- 4:00pm Wrap-Up

Organized by the Program on Science, Technology & Society at the Harvard Kennedy School.
View the full program and RSVP at <http://stsnext20.org>