

Beyond “Don’t Be Evil”: Embedding your research in social contexts

Science, Technology and Society (STS) Graduate Research Seminar

January 18-21, 2022
10:00am - 4:00pm

Harvard Kennedy School, Taubman Building, 5th Floor, Room T-520 NYE A

The Program on Science, Technology and Society invites graduate students
--particularly scientists, engineers and STS Secondary Fielders-- to sign up for an innovative research seminar designed to enable you to better understand and engage with the ways research finds its way into applications and policy, and how social and ethical factors affect aspects of your research.

This Seminar counts towards the STS Secondary Field when combined with a research paper.

Instructors

Dr. Sam Weiss Evans
Jack Hensley

In Collaboration With

Prof. Sheila Jasanoff
Prof. L. Mahadevan

<http://sts.hks.harvard.edu/>